

"Gemsune"

by

Dr. Claus

Dedicated to:

Kimberly

Once upon a time
A wolf was playing in the park
On her pretty fur
she had a special beauty mark

On the day when she was born

A Fairy said to her

"You will save a Unicorn"

Then touched her silky fur

The Fairy weaved a magic spell

As stars from heaven fell

While she enchanted one and all

The wolves began to call

Fairy gave her a special name
Mixed with fortune full of fame
As universal as a tune
Calling the wolf "Gemsune"

The magic Fairy waved her wand

Making a special bond

Sparkles glittered everywhere

Gemsune was pure and fair

Born to her this destiny
Upon this wolf you see
The birthmark of a Unicorn
So beautiful and free

Gemsune was running in a race

Across an open space

All her friends were having fun

Running in one place

Gemsune was first leading the pack

Her friends close behind

She turned her head looking back

When her brown eyes did find

An object glittered in the sun

Hidden in the green

Gemsune heard stories of one

But one no one had seen

Gemsune learned to trust her heart

She stopped right away

Her friends thought she was smart

They tackled her in play

Gemsune saw them coming

So she stepped aside

They all passed her running

"Look at this!" she cried

Her friends stood around her

They were all amazed

Gemsune picked the gem up

As everybody gazed

"This belongs to a Unicorn"

Gemsune said holding the stone

"Given to them when they are born

Without this they're alone"

"Unicorns make dreams come true

Wishes for me and you

And anyone who has the rock

Has this power too

"Let's make a wish!" Her friends said
Shouting out with glee
Gemsune said "No" And closed her eyes
As sad as she could be

"That would hurt the Unicorn"

Gemsune would explain

"A stolen wish would be their end"

Then it began to rain

Putting the gem in her pocket
Gemsune took off like a rocket
She rested near the golden horn
Of the magical Unicorn

Taking the gem she had found
Quietly and without a sound
She placed it by the sleeping beauty
Gently on the ground

Gemsune touched the mystic creature

Whose eyes were very blue

The Unicorn smiled and said

"Your heart is pure and true"

"Only a Princess pure and true
Could find a stone like this
The Fairies knew when you were born
This lady would be you"

"Gemsune you had a choice to make

Never is it easy

You chose to give and not to take

Forever saving me"

Gemsune hugged the Unicorn

Who said "Let's take a ride

On top a Unicorn reborn"

"What fun!" the princess cried

The two traveled across the seas
Over mountains above trees
They flew straight and around bends
Back to Gemsune's friends

"She's back!"" She's back!" Her friends cheered

As the Unicorn appeared

They landed in the spot

Where Gemsune disappeared

The Unicorn thanked the whole group

Then soared into the air

Gemsune smiled as she saw

Rainbows everywhere

THE BEGINNING

