

"FiZZly BiZZlynort"

by

Dr. Claus

Dedicated to:

Justin

My name is Fizzly Bizzlynort
But you can call me Biz for short
I am a happy Bumblebee
I live in this beautiful tree

I get honey from Honeybees
And give it to the bears you see
A living that agrees with me
I think you will agree

Now honey comes from everywhere

And with the bears I have to share

They get some any time of day

And when they do you'll hear me say

“Honey - Honey - Oh won’t you please be mine”

“Honey - Honey - Oh you are so fine”

“Honey - Honey - Look at your golden glow”

“Everyone loves Honey....., Everyone I know”

Every morning at 8 o'clock
I like to walk around the block
I go to the door and unlock
Wearing my honey smock

Watch me grab my bumble broom
Around the shop you see me zoom
I sweep and dust and clean the room
Welcome to my store

I am a happy Bumblebee
I love to sing as you can see
That song I love to sing the most
Is one come sing with me

“Honey - Honey - Oh won’t you please be mine”

“Honey - Honey - Oh you are so fine”

“Honey - Honey - Look at your golden glow”

“Everyone loves Honey....., Everyone I know”

Each morning I dust honey jars
Just one taste and you see stars
The best honey I ever found
Honey sold by the pound

The bears come here from all around
Because the bears are honey bound
A little bit will make them round
Such a delightful sound

On this shelf I have honey treats

And over here are honey sweets

Something for everyone to eat

Honey so sweet and neat

Catch me singing anytime
And when you do there is a rhyme
Beware because this rhymes a crime
To beautiful to be true

“Honey - Honey - Oh won’t you please be mine”

“Honey - Honey - Oh you are so fine”

“Honey - Honey - Look at your golden glow”

“Everyone loves Honey....., Everyone I know”

Excuse me as I dance about
I love to sing, I love to shout
Let the news start ringing out
Oh Honey I love you

Then from the window Fizzly spied
A sweet brown bear standing outside
Biz waved to her, "Please come inside,"
"To my honey full store." He cried

Now Ms. Blair Bear, she touched her hair
And was a bear beyond compare
For just a moment Biz would stare
At the worlds most beautiful bear

"Good Morning Blair!", Biz had to say
"Good Morning." She said, "How is your day?"
"It's DANDY, MANDY, COTTON CANDY"
Biz said in his unusual way

Ms. Blair began to laugh out loud
Of course that made Biz very proud
When she snorted, he had to sing
A song with an unusual ring

“Honey - Honey - Oh won’t you please be mine”

“Honey - Honey - Oh you are so fine”

“Honey - Honey - Look at your golden glow”

“Everyone loves Honey....., Everyone I know”

Blair gave to Biz a chocolate kiss
Biz bowed and said, "I thank you Miss!"
Then Biz gave Blair three honey jars
Two honey treats, one honey star

Blair then replied, " I love your smile."

Biz looked at her for a short while

He said, "Ms. Blair you have a gift!"

"Your words inspire, your words they lift!"

And as she smiled, Biz saw the sun

Not in the sky but in this one

A glow no sun could ever fair

Shining from Ms. Blair Bear

There was a sparkle in each heart
And Love gave each of them a start
Love is patient, Love is Kind
Love is there for them to find

They talked as they walked to the street
Of Love and Life and Honey Treats
And when they had no words to say
They knew it was Okay

Biz turned to go back to the store
He said, "Goodbye." But wait there's more
Deep in her eyes, she gave him life
Together as Husband and Wife

The Beginning
